

Property Management

Fort Bend Real Estate Corporation maximizes the value and performance of our clients' income-producing properties. We deliver dependable management services to private investors and corporate clients through all aspects of property operations. We customize the extent of our services to meet our clients' needs. Because of our hands-on management technique, FBRE has a proven track record of improving efficiency and lowering operating costs while maintaining strong tenant relationships.

Our property management services include:

- Strategic planning
- Marketing
- Tenant relations
- Capital expenditure & building enhancement programs
- Rent collections
- Payment of operating expenses
- Accurate accounting and financial reporting
- Market analysis